

Requirements for Master's Students

There are FIVE individual requirements for the AAAS Certificate. Of the five, three are course requirements:

1. Required gateway seminar (AAAS 699S)
2. Two AAAS graduate-level courses (500-level or above), taught by core or secondary faculty.
3. Additionally, an AAAS independent study (AAAS 892) developed in association with an AAAS core or secondary faculty member.
4. A final thesis/project (MALS students may complete LS 850), approved in advance by the AAAS DGS, that addresses an aspect of the program's scholarly mission. An AAAS faculty member must serve as a final reader of the thesis/project or as an examiner in its final review.

Note: a maximum of two course appeals may be approved.*